SABIS® ...
ADVANCING EDUCATION SINCE 1886

Founded in 1886, the International School of Choueifat became the foundation of the SABIS® School Network, an organization that provides a high-quality education for a changing world.

SABIS® schools offer an international, college-preparatory education. They are non-selective and committed to helping all students achieve their full potential. With over 60 schools in the network, SABIS® is at the forefront of global education.

In 2006, SABIS® received the prestigious CITA (Commission on International and Trans-Regional Accreditation) award for Advancing Education Worldwide. SABIS® was selected from over 32,000 CITA-accredited schools around the world to receive this award.

With roots in the 19th century and a vision for the 21st

“ Almost no organization could say it had run schools before, let alone point to academic results from a time-tested school design... SABIS® was the exception. ”

Steven F. Wilson. A Harvard Book Review Award Winner. Learning on the Job: When Business Takes on Public Schools. Massachusetts: Harvard Printing Press, 2006.
